

The Queenie Award

Introduced in 2007 the Queenie award is named in honour of Mike Hinchley. Mike started his camp career in 1990. He quickly made a name for himself as a dedicated and fun-loving member of the staff team. Over the years Mike created and developed new and exciting programs. Known for jumping into any program and getting lost in his role or character. Mike's energy and enthusiasm has had a lasting impact on hundreds of Arrowhead Campers and staff. Mike defines everything the camp is about. He is loyal, dedicated, caring, enthusiastic and dependable. The Queenie Award is presented to a staff member who excels in the field of programming at camp and displays similar characteristics and qualities as our Queen.

2007 David Muddiman

As the inaugural recipient of this award Dave has consistently displayed and desire to excel in the area of camp programs. Displaying confidence in front of ant group size, Dave has the ability to entertain and capture the imagination of campers. Driving the enthusiasm of campers, staff and LIT's Dave has the innate ability to make any program exciting and dynamic

2008 Tim Rushealeau

Tim Rushelau is the 2008 recipient of the Queenie Award. Tim has grown up at camp and he has developed a great rapport with all campers and staff. He has the ability to add energy and enthusiasm to all programs and he ensures that programs are well organized. He is very creative and has helped to develop many new programs at Arrowhead. Tim thrives when he is in front of the camp and leads the camp in many cheers and sing songs.

Tim takes pride in making sure that programs run smoothly and he is the first to put on a costume and jump into a new role. His voice reflects his outgoing personality and his positive aura is great for the camp.

Michael Meehan 2009

Michael Meehan is the 2009 winner of the Queenie Award. Michael has been at camp for the past six summers and has developed into an excellent staff member. He consistently brings enthusiasm and positive energy to everything he gets involved in. He spends the majority of his day entertaining and playing with campers. He does an excellent job planning programs and he loves dressing up in costumes and becoming different characters. Michael builds a solid rapport with all the campers and staff and he ensures that they are having fun at all times.