

The Richardson Award Of Recognition

This award is presented in recognition of the Richardson family, owners of Arrowhead Camp from 1981-2003. During their ownership the camp grew significantly and they provided an outstanding summer home for many staff and campers. This award is presented to a staff member who is dedicated and loyal to the successful operations of Arrowhead camp. This recipient has had a positive impact on all campers and staff and continues to go above and beyond the expectations in all areas of camp life.

Chris Smith 2005

Chris is the inaugural recipient of the Richardson Award. Chris worked his way through the ranks at camp. He first came to Arrowhead as a young camper and then took part in the camp's leadership program in 2001. Chris worked as a water ski and wake board instructor for the summers of 2002 and 2003. In 2004 he was promoted to the head of water skiing. In 2005 Chris worked as one of the directors of the camp's leadership program. Throughout his many years at camp, Chris was always positive, dedicated, and an important member of the Arrowhead family.

Christine Luszczek 2006

Christine Luszczek is the 2006 recipient of the Richardson Award. Christine has been at camp for many years in a variety of roles. She's been a camper, LIT, counselor and Water Ski Director. Her passion for water skiing and wakeboarding has helped to further develop this activity. She is loyal, dedicated and a positive influence on campers and staff. Christine is always willing to help out in all aspects of camp life. She helps to make Arrowhead a special place for so many campers and staff.

Dave Gregotski 2007

Dave is the 2007 recipient of the Richardson Award. Dave has been a camper, LIT and staff member at Arrowhead for eight summers. As a staff member he has continued to grow and develop into an outstanding leader. He brings a high level of energy and enthusiasm to all camp activities. He will be fondly remembered for his many impersonations and crazy costumes. Dave has the ability to make things fun and entertaining for the entire camp. He is also a competent life guard and he plays an important role in maintaining a safe waterfront. Dave takes pride in his job and is very dedicated and loyal to the success of Arrowhead Camp.

Dave Muddiman 2008

Dave Muddiman is the 2008 recipient of the Richardson Award. Over the past 10 years Dave has been a camper, LIT, a member of our sailing staff, our assistant waterfront director and most recently our waterfront director. He has developed excellent leadership skills and contributes in all areas of camp life. Always the first to jump in and lend a hand, Dave uses his initiative to help those around him and make the camp a better place. His warm personality rubs off on the campers and staff. He is always willing to help out and often goes beyond the call of duty. As the camp's waterfront director Dave ensures that the campers are having fun in a safe environment. His passion for camp life is evident in everything he does and he is a special member of the Arrowhead family.

Katie Hammond 2009

Katie Hammond is the 2009 recipient of the Richardson Award. During Katie's 4 years on staff she has worked as a Tennis Instructor, Director of Landsports, and for the past two years as our Leader In Training Director. Katie's positive attitude, fine-tuned organizational skills, perseverance and approachable nature all contribute to the success of the camp and the LIT program. Her dedication to her LIT's and co-workers makes Katie a strong mentor and resource for our young leaders. She is always willing to take on new projects and help out behind the scenes. As a result of Katie's loyalty and hard work she has helped provide a fun and safe environment to all who attend camp. Katie's voice carries throughout the camp and her laughter is contagious to all who hear it.
